DILLIARD TRADITION

It is said that the Dillard-Dilliard or Dellard families of America came from Carbonne d'Illard, that is, Carbonne of the Cantonment or family of Illard on the upper waters of the Rhine in France.

Carbonne d'Illard, because of religious oppression, accompanied William the Conqueror from France to the Isle of Man. He settled at Wiltshire (Wiltshire), England and had a son named John Carbonne d'Illard. Now John Carbonne d'Illard had two sons, the name of one is not known; the other, John, changed his name to John Dillard.

* John Dillard's son, George Dillard of Wiltshire, England a barrister of the British Government, was sent to Jamestown, Virginia (the first English Colony on the American Continent) as an attorney for King George the Third. From George Dillard (Dilliard) who came to America in 1660 all lines of the Dillard families descend.

55 Green Dillard who died young in San Augustine Co. Texas

56 Joseph Dillard, Uvalde County, Texas

Who in a deed recorded speaks of receiving "My father's headright from A. B.

Dillard on March 3d 1860 and deeded to him by Allen Dillard", but whose name was omitted in deed by Allen Dillard to his children of his property in Upshur County.

- 44 ALLEN DILLIARD's second marriage as listed in the 1850 census San Augustine Co. Texas:

Allen Dilliard	ae 60	male	farmer	$1,400	N.C.
Lucretia Dilliard	ae 47	female			N.C.
John D. Dilliard	ae 15	male			Tenn.
Merritt Dilliard	ae 13	male			Texas
Mary Ann Dilliard	ae 10	female			Texas

Allen Dilliard and his son Allen B. Dilliard came from Tennessee to Texas in 1836. The county in Tennessee is not known, the name of Allen's first wife and parentage are not known, but it can be assumed (but not yet proven) that our Allen is the son of Owen Dilliard of Sumner County, Tennessee. Allen Dilliard's tombstone inscription which he inscribed himself gives the following information:

Sacred to the memory of
Allen Dillard
Born March 12, 1790
Died July 30, 1875
Settled in Texas 1836

"When this you see
Remember me
When my bones is dust
And I am dead and gone
And you and you have me forgotten"
This Sept. 25th 1853
Allen Dillard

Census records give North Carolina as the birthplace of Allen Dillard and it is believed that several families of Dillard removed from Halifax and Wake Counties North Carolina to neighboring counties in Tennessee immediately following the Revolution.

Allen Dilliard and his son, Allen B. Dilliard, received land grants for their early arrival in Texas. The following records from State General Land Office.

"By certificate no. 124, Allen Dillard received a grant of one league and labor of land 881 acres being located in San Augustine County and patented February 18, 1842; 1,862.44 acres in Camp County; 800 acres in Wood County, and the balance in Upshur County, all being patented on March 20, 1848. The certificate states that he was a married man and had arrived in the Republic before the Declaration of Independence and was entitled to the above-mentioned grant."

"By certificate no. 411, Allen B. Dillard received a grant of 320 acres of land, which was located in Smith County and patented in three separate tracts under Abstracts 320, 321 and 322 respectively. The certificate states that he immigrated to Texas in January of 1836; was a single man and had arrived at the age of 17 years previous to January 1842." Another land grant for Allen B. Dillard of 160 acres of land was located in Uvalde County and patented December 3, 1862.

"This certificate is dated November 8, 1862 and states that he had resided upon this land for a period of three consecutive years and had complied with the provisions of an "Act donating Public Domain to actual settlers."

Allen Dilliard paid to W. L. Ray and Avarella his wife $400.00 for 120 acres survey #383 of 320 acres of land patented to Antonio Cruz and situated on east bank of River Sabinal. Date of deed March 26, 1859. Date of filing deed April 11, 1859. Uvalde deed books A-428.

52 the families of ALLEN B. DILLIARD

ALLEN DILLARD, the father, George Washington Patterson, and son George W. Jr., John Bowles, William A. Brown and John C. Patterson all left Smith and San Augustine Counties about 1851 and moved westward. After a short stay in Cibolo, they located on the Sabinal River, south of the present town of Sabinal, Texas and at what was soon called the "Patterson Settlement".

Several rock houses can be remembered in the neighborhood but the rock house belonging to George Washington Patterson is still in excellent condition, now owned by Rev. William L. E. Shane and his wife, Bessie. The thick rock walls with deep window seats, high mantel over the fireplace, money safe in the inside rock wall, and the extra rock house some feet away for the kitchen and dining areas are all as well preserved, with the loving care of Rev. and Mrs. Shane as they were over 100 years ago. Down the slope from the rock houses toward the Sabinal River were the row of cabins for the negroes. The threat of the Indians was so severe the menfolks moved their families back to Cibolo for better security during the years of their service in the Civil War. John Bowles, a skilled gunsman, and famous Scout, was massacred by the Indians Oct. 18, 1859, not far from the Patterson Settlement. His daughter, Mariah Elizabeth Bowles married George Washington Patterson Jr.

When the county of Uvalde was organized in 1856, John Bowles was appointed commissioner for the purpose of selecting location for the court house site. In May 1856 (Uvalde County Court Records) G. W. Patterson Sr. was appointed one of the Commissioners. Further Court Minutes of August 16, 1858 give Newman McC Patterson (son of G. W. Patterson Sr.) as Sheriff, and A. B. Dilliard as one of the Commissioners.

52 Mr. A. B. DILLIARD and family were among those who assisted in the organization of the Uvalde Methodist Church, which is celebrating its centennial 'birthday' on May 13, 1956. Like his father, who was a Missionary Preacher in early Tennessee, Mr. Dilliard became a local preacher and conducted services throughout the community.

Among the above-mentioned families it is positively known that the following were members of the Masonic Lodge:

Allen Butcher Dilliard
 John Leakey
 Newman McCollum Patterson
 George Washington Patterson Jr.
 Henry J. Shane

A. George Dilliard
 J. J. Henry Patterson
 Will Braham Patterson
 James Dalrymple
 Hy J Bowles
 Wm. Anthony Old
 John Warren Watkins
 W. W. Collier
 G. W. (Fuzzy) Van Pelt Sr.

The Dilliards and Pattersons sold their property about 1872 and moved from the Patterson Settlement. They sold to Henry J. Shane whose first wife was Nancy Elizabeth Dillard, daughter of Allen Butcher Dillard and Elizabeth Sophronia Patterson. Elizabeth Sophronia was the daughter of George Washington Patterson Sr. and Elizabeth McCollum. Henry J. Shane bought from A. B. Dillard on September 13, 1872 160 acres of land on Rio Sabinal; land that A. B. Dillard had bought from John Bowles and George Washington Paterson Sr.'s original State grant. Survey #1386 in Section #6. Mr. Shane, an energetic frontiersman and early Indian fighter, also bought additional lands from A. G. Dilliard, John Kennedy and the G. W. Patterson estate. Time passed quickly and in a few years the name "Patterson Settlement" changed to "Shane Settlement", which it is still called.

Back in San Augustine County there is a creek known as Dillard Creek named for Allen Dillard the original owner of the land. The Dillards again seek the fertile soils of the river lands and in Volume D page 462-3 Uvalde County, state of Texas deed books one will see "Special Warranty Deed" from James Hays original Grantee from the Republic of Texas to A. B. Dilliard, dated June 18, 1872 for 1/2 of 1/3 of a league, or 738 acres of land in Survey number 64 in Section 3, for the sum of $738.00 ($1.00 per acre).

On November 3, 1874 an agreement was recorded (Volume E pages 280-282) that W. B. Bowles, Greenville Bowles, T. E. Taylor, A. B. Dillard, and A. J. Spencer all agree to become equal partners in an Irrigation Ditch to be constructed on the east side of the Leona River in Uvalde County, Texas for the purpose of irrigating tracts of land, called a co-partnership known as "The Leona Irrigation and Agricultural Association".

The waters of the Leona and the overflows remained master and in a few years both money and the ditches were reputedly gone. The big flood of 1894 destroyed most of the homes on the Leona Plantation after which the settlers completely sold out. On August 21, 1901 A. B. Dillard and wife, Elizabeth S. Dillard, sold their last 49, 92/100 acres of Survey #64 to J. F. Simpson.

On April 21, 1902 a warranty deed was made by A. B. Dillard to A. B. Dillard and E. S. Dillard (vol. 27 p. 386) "for one acre of land out of Survey #64 which was reserved by the said A. B. Dillard when he sold his place to J. F. Simpson." Said acre of land having on it the graveyard established by said A. B. Dillard and it is expressly stipulated that said "Graveyard is to be used for White people only".

Henry C. Shane (Chunky) obtained permission from the Commissioners Court that the families connected with the Leona Chapel Association Cemetery have ingress and egress to the said

Cemetery at all times; and that the roads be kept in good condition.

A. B. DILLARD filed application for Guardianship 22 January 1878 of the person of ALLEN DILLARD, a minor under 14 years of age and due notice thereof having been given according to law and their being no objection raised by anyone to the appointment of A. B. Dillard Guardian as aforesaid it is ordered by the Court that he be appointed Guardian of the person of said minor, ALLEN DILLARD, upon filing a bond in the sum of $300.00 with two or more good sureties and taking the oath prescribed by law on or before the 24th day of January A.D. 1878.
